I'm an audio book narrator from England, UK and my voice is described as inquisitive, soothing and wry.

I narrate fiction in English, Irish and Scottish accents, and bring other accents from around the world for character voices, in all genres. I strive to grow and develop in this industry and aim to provide the very best version of an author's work in audio that their listeners will love.

Winner in the Best Female Narrator category in the 2021 Independent Audiobook Awards

Finalist in the 2021 Independent Audiobook Awards for General Fiction

04/21 Audiofile Earphones Award for The Hard Way Home by Jean Grainger

04/21 Audiofile Earphones Award for The Last Garden of England by Julia Kelly, a multi-cast narration for Simon & Schuster Audio.

Member of Equity, APA, and PANA
